

2026 Chinese Chamber of Commerce Scholarship

The Chinese Chamber of Commerce is pleased to offer scholarships to outstanding students whose parents are members of the Chinese Chamber of Commerce.

Scholarship Qualifications:

Who: Students graduating from high school in 2026 whose parents have paid their membership dues, may apply. Parents of the applicant must be members of the Chamber (not part of a corporation). The Scholarship Committee will determine if the application is acceptable according to membership records.

What is Required:

1. An official high school transcript that includes 7 semesters.
2. A signed letter of recommendation from your high school counselor or teacher.
3. The completed Chinese Chamber scholarship application.
4. A resumé that includes your scholastic achievements, extracurricular activities, and community service.

Scholarships will be awarded according to the applicant's scholastic achievements, extracurricular activities, and community service.

Mail all paperwork by February 14, 2026 (postmarked) to:
